1. INTRODUCTION

In terms of the Regulation 30 of the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 and amended from time to time, the Company is required to frame a Policy for Determination of Materiality of Events/Information. This Policy is called “Ironwood Education Limited – Policy for Determination of Materiality of Events/Information” (hereinafter referred to as “this Policy”) and shall be effective from 1st December, 2015.

2. OBJECTIVE

This policy for determination of materiality of events/information aims at:

- ensuring that all investors have equal access to important information that may affect their investment decisions;
- ensuring that adequate and timely information is provided to investors;
- avoiding establishment of false market in the securities of the Company; and
- communicating the principles of materiality based on which the Company shall make disclosures of events or information.

3. MEANINGS OF TERMS USED

“Act” means the Companies Act, 2013 including the rules made thereunder, schedules, clarifications and guidelines issued by the Ministry of Corporate Affairs from time to time;

“Board” refers to the Board of Directors of Ironwood Education Limited;

“Company” or “Ironwood” refers to Ironwood Education Limited pursuant to this policy.

“Listing Regulations” or “Regulations” means the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015;

“Schedule” means a Schedule annexed to the Listing Regulations;

“Stock Exchange” means a recognized stock exchange as defined under clause (f) of section 2 of the Securities Contracts (Regulation) Act, 1956; and “Subsidiary(s)” shall mean subsidiaries of the Company as defined under the Act.

Words, terms and expressions used and not defined in this Policy will have the same meaning as contained in (i) the Act, (ii) Listing Regulations, (iii) Securities Exchange Board of India Act, 1992, as may be amended from time to time.

4. POLICY AND PROCEDURES

As stated above, in terms of the Regulation 30 of the Listing Regulations, the Company is required to make disclosures of any events or information which, in the opinion of the Board of the Company is material. Further, the events specified in Para A of Part A of Schedule III are deemed to be material events and the Company is mandatorily required to make disclosure of such events.

Regulation 30(6) of the LODR Regulations specifies that the listed entity shall first disclose to the stock exchange(s) all events or information which are material in terms of the provisions of the LODR Regulations as soon as reasonably possible and in any case not later than the following:

- i. thirty minutes from the closure of the meeting of the board of directors in which the decision pertaining to the event or information has been taken;
- ii. twelve hours from the occurrence of the event or information, in case the event or information is emanating from within the listed entity;
- iii. twenty four hours from the occurrence of the event or information, in case the event or information is not emanating from within the listed entity.

Further, disclosure with respect to events for which timelines have been specified in Part A of Schedule III of the LODR Regulations shall be made within such timelines.

The Company is required to make disclosure of events specified in Para B of Part A of Schedule III, based on application of the guidelines for materiality as set out in this Policy.

In this context, the following criteria has been adopted by the Board for determining materiality of events.

- 1) The events specified in Para A of Part A of Schedule III of the Regulations and as set out in Annexure I to this Policy shall be disclosed by the Company as applicable from time to time and in a manner as set out in the regulations and this Policy.
- 2) For disclosing the events specified in Para B of Part A of Schedule III of the Regulations and as set out in Annexure II to this Policy. The Company shall consider the following criteria for determination of materiality of an event/information:
 - a. The omission of an event or information, which is likely to result in discontinuity or alteration of event or information already available publicly; or
 - b. The omission of an event or information is likely to result in significant market reaction if the said omission came to light at a later date.
 - c. The omission of an event or information, whose value or the expected impact in terms of value, exceeds the lower of the following:
 - (i) two percent of turnover, as per the last audited consolidated financial statements of the listed entity;

Policy for Determination of Materiality of Events/Information

- (ii) two percent of net worth, as per the last audited consolidated financial statements of the listed entity, except in case the arithmetic value of the net worth is negative;
 - (iii) five percent of the average of absolute value of profit or loss after tax, as per the last three audited consolidated financial statements of the listed entity;
 - d. In case where the criteria specified in sub-clauses (a) and (b) are not applicable, an event/information may be treated as being material if in the opinion of the Board, the event/information is considered material.
3. As specified in Para C of Part A of Schedule III of the Regulations and as set out in Annexure III to this Policy.
4. Without prejudice to the generality of para (A), (B) and (C) above, the listed entity may make disclosures of event/information as specified by the Board from time to time.

5. DISCLOSURE OF EVENTS/INFORMATION

- Any event required to be reported under Regulation 30 of the Regulations shall be informed to the authorized Key Managerial Personnels (hereinafter referred to as KMPs) of the Company on an immediate basis with adequate supporting data or information to facilitate a prompt and appropriate disclosure. Any other event, even if not covered under the Regulations but is potentially of price sensitive nature, must also be informed for further evaluation to KMPs.
- The Company is required to disclose to the stock exchange(s) all events or information which are material in terms of the provisions of this regulation as soon as reasonably possible and in any case not later than the following:
 - (i) thirty minutes from the closure of the meeting of the board of directors in which the decision pertaining to the event or information has been taken;
 - (ii) twelve hours from the occurrence of the event or information, in case the event or information is emanating from within the company;
 - (iii) twenty four hours from the occurrence of the event or information, in case the event or information is not emanating from within the company:

Provided that disclosure with respect to events for which timelines have been specified in Part A of Schedule III shall be made within such timelines:

Provided further that in case the disclosure is made after the timelines specified under this regulation, the listed entity shall, along with such disclosure provide the explanation for the delay.

- The authorized KMPs of the Company shall severally be responsible for ascertaining the materiality of events considering its nature and its disclosure after taking into consideration the various provisions of the regulations and this policy.
